NAME _____

(Amway IBO, or Client)

Commercial Business to Business Client _____ (check if yes)

Note: Due to the tax exemption being set at the order level, an IBO can not utilize an exemption certificate when placing an order unless the entire order being placed is for sale to the tax-exempt customer. If you are ordering for multiple customers (taxable and exempt) then sales tax will be collected on the suggested retail selling price with the IBO subsequently filing a sales tax adjustment form to request a refund of the applicable sales tax. It should be noted that many provinces will impose penalties and fines if it is determined that a sales tax exemption has been improperly utilized.
